

PHILIPPINE JUNIOR DATA SCIENCE CHALLENGE 2026

PARTNERSHIP PROPOSAL

Empowering the next generation of data scientists to solve real-world public health challenges.

UP DATA SCIENCE SOCIETY

UP Data Science Society (UP DSSoc), founded in 2020, is the pioneering data science organization at the University of the Philippines (UP).

We're dedicated to equipping and empowering aspiring data scientists to develop their skills and engage in insightful discussions. Beyond technical growth, we foster a multidisciplinary community committed to applying data science for data-driven solutions that contribute to social good and community advancement. Our work is guided by our core values: Purposeful Learning, Community for Innovation, and Utak at Puso.

ABOUT PJDSC

The Philippine Junior Data Science Challenge (PJDSC) isn't just a competition; it's where the Philippines' most promising young minds forge data-driven solutions for real-world challenges. We invite you to join us in building a generation of data-driven people equipped not just with skills, but with the passion to drive transformative social impact across our nation.

DATA IS TRANSFORMING THE FUTURE OF HEALTHCARE

Data is transforming the future of healthcare—from disease surveillance and resource allocation to predictive analytics and health policy. As public health challenges become increasingly complex, developing the next generation of data scientists has never been more important.

Yet many students have limited opportunities to apply their skills to meaningful, real-world problems before entering industry.

IMPACT BY THE NUMBERS

600+ participants

A nationwide community of aspiring data scientists and future innovators.

30+ Universities

Bringing together students from leading universities across the Philippines.

15+ Industry speakers

Experts from academia and industry sharing real-world insights and experience.

15+ Judges

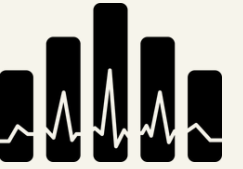

Distinguished professionals evaluating innovative, data-driven solutions.

20+ partners

Organizations supporting student innovation through collaboration and partnership.

150+ teams

Multidisciplinary teams developing impactful solutions to real-world challenges.

COMPETITION JOURNEY

An overview of this year's competition flow in 5 steps

1

Form a team of 3 to 5 members. Only the first 40 registered teams will participate in the competition.

Teams submit initial concept proposal, aligned with this year's theme, to officially participate in the challenge.

Teams engage in curated talks and workshops designed to help them refine their concepts and enhance their technical execution.

Teams prepare and submit their work through a final proposal package, including a polished slide deck, source code, and a recorded demo video.

Projects will be evaluated in the elimination round. The Top 10 teams then advance to receive mentorship, leading to a live presentation at the culminating event.
